About SIA

Founded in 1908, the Southern Innkeepers Association is proud to be the oldest lodging organization in the United States.

The SIA promotes and provides a platform for Southern hospitality leadership by building a community that leverages experience, focuses on innovative solutions and tackles meaningful issues.

Our goal is to inspire the leaders of Southern hospitality to connect, engage, collaborate and exchange by providing a platform for innovation and inspiration; and resources for engagement and learning.

Our members are Southern hospitality leaders located in the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia.

As a member of the Southern Innkeepers Association, you can be a part of this select group of southern hoteliers who promote and support innovation and excellence in the hospitality industry.
